Welcome to TheUpTrend.com and thank you for signing up..

While we're preparing to get you started, let me provide you with some essential.

information to help you make the most of your experience on our platform..

1..

All charts are color coded..

Blue indicates a bullish trend it red represents a bearish trend..

2..

Stock coverage..

We focus on the top 20% of symbols that account for 80% of the market's activity..

These stocks are found in the major.

indexes such as the S&P 500, Nasdaq 100, the TSX and the TSX 60..

We currently have over 2200 symbols in our.

database and update the database on a regular basis..

Please note that we do not cover new ipos or penny stocks..

Chart usage..

Our charts are based on historical data and are updated daily or weekly..

You can review all our charts for.

research, but there's no need to review all 15 charts regularly..

Buy signals occur when a stock first closes above the upper channel line, while.

sell signals happen when it first closes below the lower channel line..

All orders are placed at the open and it's.

important to consider late breaking developments before placing an order..

Profit target orders should be placed.

after confirmation of your initial buy or sell order..

4..

Market focus for trading..

We focus on the daily closing price..

For investing, we focus on the closing price at 04:00 p.m. Friday afternoons..

We prioritize price movements over reacting directly to news..

5..

Stock selection..

The key to success is continuously.

upgrading your portfolio with the best stocks available..

Stocks come and go..

Do not hold on to losing stocks..

Just like Beanie Babies and Cabbage Patch Kids..

Stocks come and go, but the stock market does not..

6. We make all trade decisions based solely on technical analysis and do not.

check company fundamentals, news, earnings or rumors..

Past performance is not indicative of future performance..

Once again, thank you for choosing.

theuptrend.com. If you don't receive your welcome email.
